Sub:- Procurement of paddy by MARKFED and PACS under Decentralized Procurement Scheme of Government of India during Khariff Marketing Season-2010-11.

Sir,

9256
18-12-10
1224
The Khariff Marketing Season-2010-11 (October'2010 to September'2011) has already commenced. In the last K.M.S.2009-10, the PACS had achieved commendable strides in paddy procurement operation by procuring 16.22 lakh M.T. paddy ensuring payment of remunerative price to the small and marginal farmers in the state.

1.1 The Food and Procurement Policy for K.M.S.'2010-11 of the State Government has been issued in letter no.18407 dt. 16.10.2010 of F.S.& C.W. Deptt. . The Operational Guidelines issued by the Orissa State Civil Supplies Corporation Ltd. for K.M.S.'2010-11 have been communicated to the M.D., O.S.C. Bank ,all Secretaries of D.C.C. Banks and all Divisional D.R.C.S. in the Letter No.16722 dt.21.10.2010 for meticulous adherence.

1.2 The State Govt. has allocated a target of 14.00 lakh M.T. in the form of rice (equivalent to about 20.59 lakh M.T. paddy)to O.S.C.S .C. to be procured in the current K.M.S.'2010-11 . The district-wise allocation of target by the State Govt. is indicated in ANNEXURE-I .

1.3. MARKFED will procure paddy to the extent of about 5.97 lakh M.T.(4.00 lakh M.T.rice) directly from the farmers or through PACS, WSHGs, Pani Panchayats and deliver the custom milled rice after milling by the authorized custom millers to F.C.I. or O.S.C.S.C. The PACS will procure paddy to the extent of 13,97,512 M.T. directly from the farmers as the commission agent of O.S.C.S.C. Ltd. The District-wise allocation of target to PACS by O.S.C.S.C. Ltd. is indicated in ANNEXURE-II. The Divisional D.R.C.S., in consultation with District Manger, O.S.C.S.C., Chief Executive of D.C.C. Banks and Circle A.R.C.S. , will allocate the target to the PACS before arrival of paddy to the market.

2. PREPARATORY MEASURES:-

2.1.Finalisation of PACS and Paddy Purchase Centres.

(a) The prime objective of involving of PACS is to ensure that the farmers sell their paddy at the PACS level without incurring expenditure relating to transportation of paddy to market yards.

(b) The Divisional D.R.C.S. in consultation with the Secretary, D.C.C. Bank and Circle A.R.C.S. have identified 1808 PACS to procure paddy during KMS'2010-11 through 1929 Paddy Purchase Centres (PPC) in 29 districts.

(c) The District Procurement Committee under the Chairmanship of the Collectors comprising of the Divisional D.R.C.S., Secretaries of D.C.C. Banks and District Manager, O.S.C.S.C. Ltd. and other officers will finalise the list of capable PACS considering their manpower, infrastructural availability, testing equipment and past tract records immediately ,if not done, so far. The D.P.C. may also select new PACS and PPC ,if consider necessary.

2.2. (a) The D.R.C.S.,A.R.C.S. and the Secretary of D.C.C. Bank should ensure arrangement for availability of equipment such as Moisture Meter, Physical Balance, Set of Sieves, Analysis/Testing Kit, Parkhi, Sample Pan, Mini Grader/Paddy Cleaner, Digital Weighing Scale(Platform Model)to facilitate procurement operation.

In case of non availability of such equipment, the Secretary R.M.C. and the General Manager, OSAM Board may be contacted for supply of those equipment.

(b) In order to safeguard the paddy from rain ,arrangement should be made to cover the paddy with polythene & paddy should be heaped on pucca pindi . It would be appreciated, if Covered And Plinth (CAP), is made in the PPC.

(c) The D.R.C.S., Secretary of the D.C.C. Bank and the circle A.R.C.S. should ensure availability of facilities for drinking water and sitting arrangement for the farmers at each PPC.

2.3. Wide Publicity :-

(a) Adequate publicity and awareness among the farmers should be made about paddy procurement. Leaflets, handouts indicating days of procurement, M.S.P. rates, FAQ standard may be distributed. Publicity through use of loud speaker may be made in villages for awareness of small and marginal farmers.

(b) PACS should display banners indicating at each PPC in local language such information as reflected in Annexure III

3. Agreement:-

3.1. (a) The Secretary of D.C.C. Bank has been instructed to execute agreement with O.S.C.S.C. on behalf of PACS as the Commission Agent of O.S.C.S.C. as per format prescribed by O.S.C.S.C. and consented by the O.S.C. Bank and communicated to all D.C.C. Banks in the Memo No.17347 dt.30.10.2010 . The Secretary of D.C.C. 9. REPORTING:-

9.1. The Branch Manager of the D.C.C. Bank will be responsible for the data entry on the Web site on the next day of procurement unfailingly under intimation to the Secretary, D.C.C. Bank, D.R.C.S., A.R.C.S. and R.C.S.(O).

9.2. The Secretary, D.C.C. Bank should submit the consolidated district wise weekly progress report to the O.S.C.B. and DR.C.S., who in turn, would report to the R.C.S.(O) in the format prescribed by the R.C.S.(O).

9.3. The M.D., MARKFED should submit the weekly progress report to the R.C.S.(O).

Paddy procurement is a viable business proposition for PACS. It not only accomplishes the objective of Linking Credit with Marketing but also enables the PACS in rendering useful services to small and marginal farmers of the state in getting remunerative prices for paddy. Besides, it leads to 'win-win' situation for all the important stake-holders, farmers, PACS and the Orissa State Civil Supplies Corporation Ltd.

It is expected that PACS would make endeavour to achieve the target with effective supervision and guidance of the D.R.C.S., A.R.C.S. and the Chief Executives of all D.C.C. Banks.

Yours faithfully
